

STOP the BNP in Hucknall Central

Organise for JOBS and HOMES - NOT RACISM

Edward Holmes - BNP Racist

Edward Holmes wants your vote and he's prepared to say and do almost anything to get it. Holmes, a former councillor and council leader for the Labour Party, has his sights set on a seat in parliament. He's the prospective BNP candidate for the Ashfield constituency in the coming general election. He doesn't care about Hucknall Central – he has 'bigger' fish to fry.

But Holmes isn't just telling lies about his plans for Hucknall, he's telling lies about his new political friends, the British National Party. These lies are catching up with him. Holmes and the BNP say they're not racist. Holmes himself was filmed by the BBC saying he'd be happy for black people to die for his safety but they couldn't join the BNP – a party he wants to govern this country. Holmes is not only racist but he opposes basic democracy.

Holmes and the BNP claim to stand up for 'ordinary people'. Another lie. During the miners' strike those who now control the BNP heaped abuse upon striking miners and their families, supported the scabs and applauded Thatcher's efforts to crush mining communities. These people care nothing for Hucknall, care nothing for the working class, they care nothing for people like you!

What we need – the alternative to the fascist BNP

- Free, equal quality education service for all —with sufficient money to deal with the crisis in schools and colleges; reverse privatisation.
- The restoration of dignity and rights at work; repeal anti-union laws.
- An end to poverty wages and jobs with no prospects.
- A higher minimum wage, protect wages from inflation.
- Increased taxes on wealthy millionaires and near millionaires.
- Expanded decent, low rental council housing for all.
- Support for communities with services, recreational facilities and a sense of hope that can keep young people away from crime and drugs.

Trade unions, community campaigners and others battle to improve public services and provision, to defend our rights and speak up for those in need whilst the BNP sit on their hands.

What is the BNP?

The British National Party is a racist, fascist organisation with roots in the openly Nazi 'National Front'. They have a long, well-documented, history of violence against their political opponents – socialists and trade unionists – and those they oppose – gays, lesbians, the black community and immigrant communities.

The BNP hope to benefit from the economic crisis and the political vacuum created by the failures of the mainstream politics parties. Against their hate and opportunism we say: organise for Jobs and Homes, NOT Racism. Build anti-racist and anti-fascist groups that build solidarity in struggle for better public services, greater democracy and a political voice for workers and our communities.
